The tools you need— anytime, anywhere

You want to make sure that people can have access to the tools they need, the information they need, right at their fingertips, whenever they need it.

Amy Hood,
Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

According to Amy, easy access to tools and information across devices is vital for a modern workplace.

Better tools enable better ideas

You leave at the end of the day having a better idea than when you arrived in the morning.

Brad Smith,
President and Chief Legal Officer

As our tools and environments evolve, so do our ideas. Brad believes the modern workplace is all about enabling new and better insights.

Secure content, devices, and identities

It's enterprise-grade, easy-to-use security that your end users don't even have to think about.

Chris Capossela,
Chief Marketing Officer and Executive Vice President, Marketing and Consumer Business

Chris considers security to be one of the most important aspects of the modern workplace, especially when it comes to collaboration.

04

A more efficient workplace

A workplace that can help us be more efficient and effective, save time, is what it's all about.

Jeff Ramos,
General Manager,
Microsoft Garage

Jeff values maximizing the use of time—our most valuable and scarce commodity—in the workplace.

A truly inclusive environment

It means people bringing their authentic self to work and being comfortable.

Kathleen Hogan,
*Executive Vice President,
Human Resources*

Kathleen values individuality in the workplace, fostering an environment in which everyone can feel comfortable and do their best work.

Cross-device collaboration

It gets set up for them automatically. They don't have to worry about whether the device is configured correctly.

Kurt DelBene,
Chief Digital Officer and Executive Vice President, Corporate Strategy, Core Services Engineering and Operations

In Kurt's opinion, a modern workplace should inspire collaboration with ease and efficiency, from any device.

07

Accomplish more in less time

Technology should simplify things, not make it more complex.

Peggy Johnson,
*Executive Vice President,
Business Development*

To Peggy, a modern workplace is simple, streamlined, and breaks down barriers.
